SeaBreeze COLLECTIVE

SeaBreeze Collective is a sustainable, luxury bathing suit company. Our slogan is "Buying Beachwear with Ease." This refers to the ease of mind to have a guilt-free shopping experience when customers know they can shop sustainably.

SeaBreeze Collective sells swimwear, beach coverups, rompers, t-shirts, tote bags, and more from sizes XX-Small to XXX-Large. All of our fabrics and materials are sourced sustainably.

Our Mission

Our mission statement for SeaBreeze Collective is "As a sustainable, luxury beachwear brand, we will provide customers with high performing, chic, and long-lasting pieces. SeaBreeze Collective hopes to make women of any size and color feel included in a swimwear shopping experience."

Background

This company was founded in San Clemente, CA in 2021 by Malea Jenkins. SeaBreeze Collective currently has 30 employees. Malea Jenkins decided to start this brand after learning about the fast fashion industry and how harmful these practices are for the planet, people, plants, and animals.
